The New World Order

BY B.W. ALANS

The development of the NEW WORLD ORDER is comprised of basically three different facets. (1) Monetary and economic control. (2) Political control. (3) Spiritual or religious control. The three main aspects of the coming New World Order are the establishment of a (1) INTERNATIONAL MONETARY SYSTEM. (2) INTERNATIONAL WORLD GOVERNMENT. (3) GLOBAL ONE-WORLD RELIGION. The following is a brief synopsis of the three main facets which together comprise the NEW WORLD ORDER, and how these interrelate with each other and how they are being implemented, as well as the locations of the various power-centers behind their implementation:

(1) INTERNATIONAL MONETARY SYSTEM - Over the next few years moves will be made to bring about a global currency as new monies are introduced into the economy in exchange for present currencies. The eventual goal is to do away with paper money all-together and establish a globalized, computerized, interconnecting banking network (Electronic Funds Transfer). All will be given some form of identification number, those without this number will be unable to do any purchasing other than bartering. The Basle Tower, headquarters of the BANK OF INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENTS (BIS) in Basle, Switzerland, is the center for economic-monetary control worldwide. If one traces Masonic Incorporations, they will find they all come under two corporations (one for Lodges, one for members) - both registered in Basle.

World banking lines are controlled from BASLE, from the BIS. The BIS is also the "Bank of Last Resort" of the European Common Market (the drive for a "U.S. of Europe" which intends to do away with European nationalism). The BIS also has its hands into over 60 percent of the world's trade. The BIS and its associates have for years been siphoning gold from the U.S. into Switzerland in order to undermine U.S. economy. At regular intervals seven of the most powerful men in the world meet at the "Basle Tower" to determine world monetary strategy. These seven are: 1. Paul Volcker, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board of America; 2. Lord "Gordon" Richardson of the Bank of England; 3. Harou Mayekawa of the Bank of Japan; 4. Dr. Fritz Leutwiler, president of both the BIS and the Swiss National Bank; 5. Karl Otto Pohl, president of the West German Bundesbank; 6. Henry Wallich, governor of the U.S. Federal Reserve, and; 7. Lamberto Dino of the Bank of Italy. There are known to be seven branches or grand lodges of the Illuminati (which includes Freemasonry, Grand Orient, Carbonarism, Zionism, Templarism, and other occult societies under Illuminati control) Whether the fact that the "club of 7" (who are each the most powerful men in their respective countries) has any connection to the "7 lodges" of the Illuminati is uncertain. Although BIS is the center for International Monetary policy, the actual control center for the coming economic slavery will be at the largest computer complex in the world, located in the Monet Building in Luxemborg. This is the successor to the giant computer some people still call "the beast" because of it's size. It occupies three floors at the (10-Nation) Common Market Administration Building in Brussels, Belgium, and has input capacity sufficient to register every person on earth. Dr. Patrick Fisher, Canadian Computer Scientists, says, "You and I are tied into this computer by one or more keys: our social security number, our driver's license, our birth certificate, our passport number and whatever credit cards we use. Every move you have made, and every penny that you have paid to Internal Revenue each year is all on record."

TOWER OF BASLE

(2) INTERNATIONAL WORLD GOVERNMENT - The first attempt to establish world government was the League of Nations. The second was the United Nations. The third was the Trilateral Commission, created by David Rockefeller - the sister organization of the Council on Foreign Relations, with ties to the Business Advisory Council, the Royal Institute for International Affairs, the Olympians, Alpine Institute, and the many other subversive "One-World" organizations, some well known, some less so. The "conspirators" go by many names. Some of these include Humanists, Globalists, Aquarians (New Age Movement), and others. The main common denominator between these groups is their mutual goal of implementing the "NEW WORLD ORDER." Almost all groups who use that phrase ARE involved in the establishment of the World Order, even though on the outside these groups may not appear cooperative with one another, the hidden forces behind each of them are basically the same: ILLUMINISM! The Illuminati, founded by Adam Weishaupt in 1776 at the request of the Jesuit Order, later went on to take control of almost all secret societies and occult groups. Their goal is to bring about a world order by creating a thesis (the problem), the antithesis (opposition to the problem), and synthesis or the merging of opposites, the merging of Capitalism with Communism, Republican Party with the Democratic Party, etc., and synthesis of all aspects of international society into a Global One-World System or NEW WORLD ORDER (which will be Orwellian in nature). The Illuminati created the French Revolution and had a hand in nearly all revolutions and wars since that time, the Napoleonic Wars, WWI, WWII (which F.D.R. intentionally dragged America into by not warning Pearl Harbor of the attack he knew would take place). Wars like the one in Korea, which we were not allowed to win; like Vietnam (started as the result of an "alleged" attack on American craft in Tonkin Gulf - an attack which did not take place! - and gave the excuse for that war,, which we were intentionally prevented from winning). The next planned war will be between Israel - U.S.A. and PLO-Arabs-Russia. Plan: three world wars, three world revolutions, and finally the Global tyrannical government which will be forced upon a war-weary world as the "perfect solution" to war, economics, etc. The U.N. still plays a large role in the implementation of the NEW WORLD ORDER. The American center, or branch of the Illuminati in U.S.A., apparently one of the 7 branches, is the "Bones" temple owned by the Skull & Bones society of Yale (now incorporated as RUSSELL TRUST ASSOCIATION. P.O. Box 2138 Yale Station, New Haven, Connecticut 06520). Their headquarters for "operating" graduates is on Deer Island in Alexandria Bay, St. Lawrence River, New York. Home of the Deer Island Club, the center for media, educational, political and financial control in America. The Order originally had its roots in Germany, most likely in Weishaupt's Bavarian Illuminati. (See: THE ORDER - in 4 Vols., by Dr Antony Sutton - Research Publications - P.O. Box 39850 - Phoenix, AZ. 85069).

(3) GLOBAL ONE-WORLD RELIGION - Evidence indicates that the BAHAI TEMPLE in Wilmette, Illinois, is the center for the World Religion. Rumors persist that beneath the temple are chambers which serve as the main Lodge or meeting site for the Grand Masters of the World Satanic Lodges (Zionist connected). The founder of the Baha'is was a self-professed Christ known as Baha'u'llah, who believed in a one-world economic order, global religion, global government, the establishment of an international "House of Justice" (i.e., League of Nations or United Nations), etc. (See: THE WORLD ORDER OF BAHAI'U'LLAH by Shoghi Effendi - Baha'i Distribution Service - 415 Linden Ave. - Wilmette, IL. 60091.) Shoghi Effendi was the third and last "Baha'i World Guardian", grandson of Baha'u'llah. This book sets forth the Baha'i plan for the establishment of the NEW WORLD ORDER, a plan which is based on the Last Will and Testament of Abdul Baha, the second "world guardian" and son of Baha'u'llah. The Baha'is have connections with the Masonic Lodges (of Chicago, etc.), and publish a magazine called WORLD ORDER, which has its editorial office at Yale University (2011 Yale Station - New Haven, CT. 06520), suggesting a Russell Trust (Skull & Bones, a.k.a. THE ORDER) connection. The administrative office of the Baha'i movement is at 866 United Nations Plaza, New York, N.Y., the very same address as Lucis Trust (formerly Lucifer Trust), which is known to be the leading power behind the Aquarian Conspiracy or New Age Movement (also known as the Human Potential Movement). Lucis Trust has as its ultimate goal the establishment of a one-world pantheistic religion based on Cabalistic and Theosophical/occult teachings. They advocate world socialism and the complete destruction of Christianity! (the very same goal as that of the Illuminati). The basic principle of these Cabalists is their belief that man can become God, since God is to them the sum total of all things in the universe, not an all-powerful central deity or trinity like the God of the HOLY BIBLE. They are entirely pantheistic and/or Satanistic in nature. (See: THE HIDDEN DANGERS OF THE RAINBOW, by Constance Cumbe - Huntington House - P.O. Box 78205 - Shreveport, LA.

71137). Lucis Trust and the very powerful Aquarian network have ties with Human Potential programs of the Stanford and Esalen Research Institutes (Christian Vanguard - Box 426 - Metairie, LA. 70004 -- distributes a series of tapes on conspiracy, cults, and the NEW WORLD ORDER, which explains the Esalen-SRI connections in depth). The Aquarian conspirators, through offices in the United Nations complex, are planning various one world government and one-world religion promoting activities such as the "World Festival of Humanity" on October 24 and 30, 1985 (40th anniversary of the U.N. Charter), accompanied by several different international Aquarian events; Stage II - will be the "World Day", beginning on the Summer Solstice, 1986, which will "draw together people in centers throughout the planet concerned about peace, hunger and the environment", three powerful problems which have been exploited by the conspirators no end in their attempts to bring about Globalization and increasing controls. Artists, engineers and "creative thinkers" across the globe working with media and participatory involvement at all levels will create the synthesizing environment planet work (thesis-antithesis brought into a synthesis, as stated before), and other activities intended to bring about the NEW WORLD ORDER, a synthesis of American, British, Soviet, etc. society into a global order. Stage III - will be what they call the "Harmonic Convergence" of August 16-17, 1987 which will set the stage for the "Luciferian planetary initiations" (See: HIDDEN DANGERS OF THE RAINBOW for details on this) and the establishment of the Global religion, et al. (See: Merrie Magi's Newsletter, issue #4 - one of the leading publications in the Aquarian-Humanist network - 366 Kelton-Jennersville Road - West Grove, PA. 19390). The United Nations, we might add, will be a center for world government. All nations will be disarmed and weapons nuclear and otherwise, are to be handed over to the U.N. into the hands of a central police force. In this way, any single nation which chooses to rebel against the world government and seek its own independence will be dealt with accordingly by this international police authority. Lucis (or Lucifer) Trust has ties with several organizations which in turn have ties with the American branch of the Illuminati (or, THE ORDER - see Antony Sutton's works - SECRET CULT OF THE ORDER, p.38), like, for instance, the Unitarian Association (now Unitarian Church). In fact, former President William Taft, whose father co-founded The Order, was president of the Unitarian Association in his time!

"The Coming World Order"

BY INQUIRE WITHIN

(From THE PATRIOT -March 6, 1941)

We have before us a pamphlet, "A Coming World Order," December, 1940, by Mrs. A.A.Bailey, Rosicrucian and Theosophist of New York, apparently inspired by her over-rulers, "The Hierarchy of Light" or "Supermen." It is curious how often among the many more or less subversive sects their mysterious teachers pose as instruments of Light, but far from being divine it is merely the Astral Light "which blinds feeble souls." Their usual method is to dominate minds, or, as Mrs. Bailey expresses it, "form opinions". They change the current of world thought secretly orienting it in favor of their world gamble. Their professed aim is to reform the world eliminating the evil and establishing the good, yet in a high ritual of a modern Rosicrucian order it is said: "The evil helps forward the good!"

Thus, according to Mrs. Bailey: "The smashing of national credits, the breakdown of the capitalistic systems, the levelling of the people to one common ground of suffering and opportunity must surely provide an ideal condition (brought about by whom!) for the effecting of long desired changes...Various basic trends of thought are appearing which in the new world order will unfold into that major synthesis so much desired by the spiritual Hierarchy of the planet, and which, whilst preserving in all probability the large national and racial outlines, will produce an underlying and subjective state of consciousness which will end the age of separateness (psychically under subjection to the Hierarchy!). Desire is today being evoked for the Federated States of Europe...; there is talk of a new order in Asia, of the good neighbor policy in America, for a Federal Union of the democratic nations, and there is the steady spread of the Soviet Socialist Republics. They might be divided as follows: -

1. A Federal Union of the great democracies after the war. This might include the British Empire as a whole, the United States and Canada, the Scandinavian countries and certain northern European nations, including Germany.

2. A Union of the Latin countries, including France, Spain, all the Mediterranean countries, the Balkan countries, except one or two which might be absorbed into the Soviet Union, and South America.

3. The United Soviet Socialist Republics and certain Asiatic nations working in collaboration with them, such as China and later Japan.

"...Each nation within the three blocs would preserve its sovereign independence, but between these independent nations and between these blocs there would be identity of purpose, unity of effort, and the recognition of the economic control of the (economic) League of Nations. This League, being formed of the representatives of all the nations and its inner governing body being chosen by the three blocs, would control all sources of supply, distribute all such supplies, and determine all economic policies."

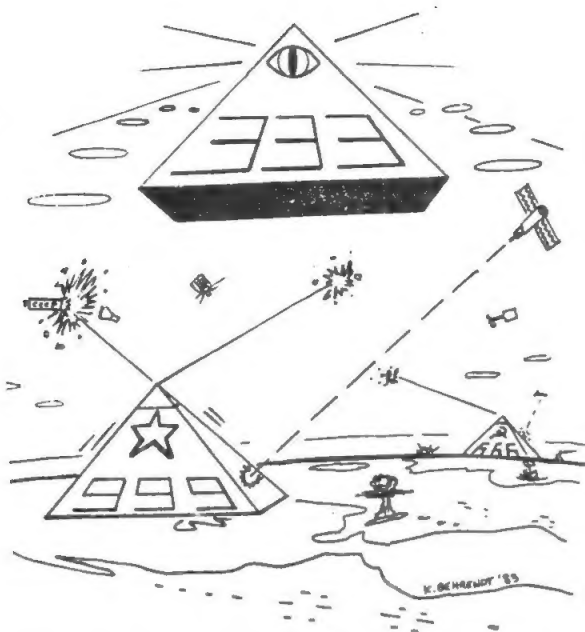

Thus would arise a huge economic Communist body under the subjective rule of the cabalistic Hierarchy of Light! Added to this, a world religion common to all, even the godless U.S.S.R., it would finally and inevitably be a communistic and subjective Cabalism, controlled by these so-called supermen! As Mrs. Bailey explains: "The three words, electricity, light and life, express divinity, and their synthesis is God!"

The White Pyramid

BY KENNETH W. BEHRENDT

I am often asked by students of the occult just what or who comprise the "white pyramid" and why I call it "white". Most readers will have no difficulty understanding the "blue" and "red" pyramids since these are mentioned on our national news programs almost daily, but the remaining pyramid of the triad is only vaguely understood by most since it is only rarely hinted at or totally excluded from the consciousness of the red and blue pyramids' bases of robotic masses. The white pyramid consists, simply, of the extraterrestrial and subterrestrial forces which operate near earth and have existed for as long as the human race. The humanoid beings who comprise the white pyramid are more technologically and biologically advanced than the humans in the blue and red pyramids. This advancement frees them from the materialistic values that predominate the lives of red and blue pyramid members and also forces them to shun all ties with the latter...except under special conditions.

What are these special conditions? They exist whenever the earthbound base members of the blue and red pyramids are in danger of self-extinction. It is primarily for this reason that contacts between the three pyramids have been on a steady increase for the last two millenia and have taken a very noticeable upturn since the fed and blue pyramids have entered the nuclear era...this is a sure sign that our world is now in the gravest of perils and that events are already in progress which will determine the new world order on the next, and third, millenium. To understand the nature of this new order, we must briefly discuss the various extraterrestrial and subterrestrial groups that occasionally contact the base members of the red and blue pyramids in an effort to steer us clear of self extinction and toward our best destiny which will involve absorption into the white pyramid itself.

The extraterrestrial portion of the white pyramid consists of local space-faring races who, while extracting the mineral wealth of our star system's various moons for their own use, keep a watchful eye on the activities of the blue and red earthbound pyramids. They became particularly concerned after the detonations of the first nuclear weapons over Japan in 1945 and have now decided to reveal their saucer technology to us in the hopes that the increased mobility it will allow us will prevent nuclear globalcide. To prevent a massive cultural inferiority complex from developing, this technology can not simply be handed to us on a silver platter, rather we must figure it out for ourselves with the data provided us by the white pyramid through the many tens of thousands of UFO sightings now on record. The subject of ufology has arisen to respond to this purposely given data and we may expect it to shortly lead to a duplication, in all its aspects, of the propulsion technology demonstrated by our extraterrestrial visitors.

The other portion of the white pyramid consists of the earth's subterrestrials. These are humanoid beings who split off from surface humanity about 250,000 years ago to escape the last ice age and its massive glacial flows by going underground. They dwell within the earth's crevice riddled crust at depths down to two miles and near northern latitude 45 degrees. They have virtually no technology, but have developed bizarre genetic capabilities that allow certain of them to become invisible or interpenetrate solid objects. On occasion, they rise to the earth's surface and account for the various religious miracles and such things as ghosts, elves, etc. They are also concerned to the dangers presented to them by a red/blue pyramid nuclear holocaust and the recent increase in seismic activity caused by the dislocation in the flow of energy from the earth's core due to the build up of carbon dioxide in our atmosphere. They have no technology to share with humanity, but have reached a highly developed moral and ethical philosophy of existence that they would share with us. Unfortunately, the blue and red pyramid members can not yet handle the shock of accepting the existence of these beings and such contact must await the dawn of the much talked about "New Age".

I have already covered the various indications given by the white pyramid about the year when surface humanity will finally be Absorbed into the white pyramid. In my earlier article titled "The Final Battle of the Three Pyramids," (CT #3) this year was given as 1998. There is yet another incident, again representative of formal contact with the white pyramid, that indicate this is, indeed, to be an important year in the history of our planet.

In early 1778, General George Washington and his Continental Army had just crossed into the state of New Jersey after a brutal winter encampment at Valley Forge. It was his intention to engage the British forces in the Battle of Trenton which, as most Revolutionary War buffs know, was the decisive battle that gave birth to the blue pyramid in the North American continent. Prior to the battle, Washington left his officers and wandered off into the woods to kneel in the snow and pray for divine guidance. Years later, in a letter to Thomas Jefferson, Washington told what happened to him in the woods that day. He claimed that the figure of a woman floating in the air suddenly materialized before him. This figure informed him that he would win the battle that lay ahead and proceeded to materialize scenes for him that showed all of the future wars that lay ahead for the blue pyramid! Washington was told that the original thirteen colonies would become a great nation and that it would eventually dominate the entire world, but that its entire history would only last 222 years. If we take the birth of our nation as being 1776 (the year the Declaration of Independence was signed) and add 222 to it, we get 1998!

Another interesting and historical contact between the founders of our nation and the white pyramid occurred in the summer of 1786. The Constitution was being written out and it fell to Thomas Jefferson and Benjamin Franklin to produce a design for the "Great Seal of the United States". They labored long into the hot night, but could come to agreement on nothing. Jefferson decided to get some air and went for a walk in his garden. He was approached by a mysterious figure wearing a black cloak who handed him a scroll containing the designs for the obverse and reverse sides of the great seal. The figure admonished Jefferson to use only these designs and to make sure they were widely circulated among the populace. Jefferson brought the scroll into Franklin and both men immediately agreed that they were exactly what they had been looking for. Jefferson returned to the garden, but the mysterious stranger had vanished as suddenly as he had arrived.

While the obverse or front part of the seal is widely used by our state department, the reverse side is found only on the back of our one dollar bill. It shows a stone pyramid with thirteen courses of stonework leading up to a floating capstone containing a glowing eye. Draped about the base of the pyramid is a banner with the words "Novus Ordo Seclorum". Above the pyramid floats the words "Ann-uit Coeptis".

From studying these symbols, it is obvious to me that ~~that~~ the stone pyramid's thirteen layers represent the 222 years of the blue pyramid's existence since the year 1776. This is because the base of the pyramid contains the roman numerals for 1776...thus, the thirteen levels represent thirteen time periods which lead up to the year 1998 (these time periods are not of equal duration). At the top of the stone pyramid there is an abrupt end and then one encounters the glowing and floating "Eye of God". This indicates that the blue pyramid will be absorbed into the white pyramid and that this will involve the technological achievements of levitation and glows which are the chief properties of the many UFOs sighted in the latter half of this century. The end of this absorption is indicated on the banner whose words mean "The New Order of the Ages". I believe that that the eye in the capstone is actually symbolic of the flying saucer.

So from these incidents, it seems that we who temporarily inhabit the earth's surface are now locked into a destiny that will, within the lifetimes of most reading this article, bring us into a foretold New Age. As in all transitions, we may expect the change in world orders to be accompanied by many birth pangs. Much of this misery will be due to the last ditch efforts of the controllers of the blue and red pyramids to prevent the transition from occurring. Consequently, they will continue to deny the reality of the white pyramid while covertly trying to duplicate its wonders. In the final analysis, it makes little difference what the elite political/military/intelligence/scientific controllers in the capstones of the blue and red pyramids do, for the New Age will come regardless of their efforts. Those consigned to the bases of these pyramids, in reverse fashion, need do nothing to hasten the final absorption...for these events have already been predicted by those with far more information in hand.

Report From The Readers

FROM LOS ANGELES

As a subscriber to your generally excellent publication, I find I must take the most vehement exception to the article in the August issue titled "REAGAN, BILBURG, and THE NAZIS", by one John Judge (if that is his real name), which reads like an ADL smear sheet or a Walter Winchell-Drew Pearson potboiler, breathlessly describing deep, dark plots between the U.S. Government and those mean old "Nazis". That this laughable nonsense flies in the face of established facts and the clear record of history is too obvious to belabour here. What I object to is permitting this kosher truth-butcher to use the pages of an otherwise fine publication such as CONSPIRACY TRACKER to traduce the memory of such Aryan patriots as Col. Otto Skorzeny and Generals Patton, MacArthur, and Willoughby and slander such fine Europeans as Dr. Arthur Rudolph, Valerian Trifa, and Andrea Artukovic, all victims of Jew persecution in collaboration with the Satanic U.S. Government. Mr. Judge gives himself away at the beginning of his article when he claims that the Allies and the Axis both agreed in 1943 that communism is the real enemy. In spite of the obvious falsity of such a claim, (Since the "Allies" handed Eastern Europe over to Bolshevism on a silver platter) it's interesting to see that Mr. Judge views anti-Communism as a major "fascist" crime. But he really lets the cat out of the bag when he reveals at the article's end that much of it was based on the "research" of one Mae Brussel, who just happens to be the daughter of the late unlamented Jewish capo Rabbi Edgar Magnin, a 33rd degree Mason. I live less than a mile from the Wilshire Temple in Los Angeles, where Magnin was witch doctor. He would frequently hold holiday services at the giant Scottish Rite Masonic Temple just down the street. Last year when Magnin died, they held a large memorial service at the Masonic Temple, attended by his daughter Mae Brussel. It is the job of this yentl to run around pretending to be a "conspiracy researcher" and to write Articles containing 10% truth and 90% kosher salami in order to confuse the dumb goyim as to who the real enemy is. Sincere White Christians should avoid this Jewess and her scribblings like the plague!

In conclusion, let me reiterate that honest journals such as this one should not permit themselves to be used by the sly serpent of Jewry. They should only carry articles that squarely come down on the REAL enemy, the anti-Christ Jew descendants of Cain, the son of Satan and originator of the cabala of the great Whore, Mystery Babylon the Great.

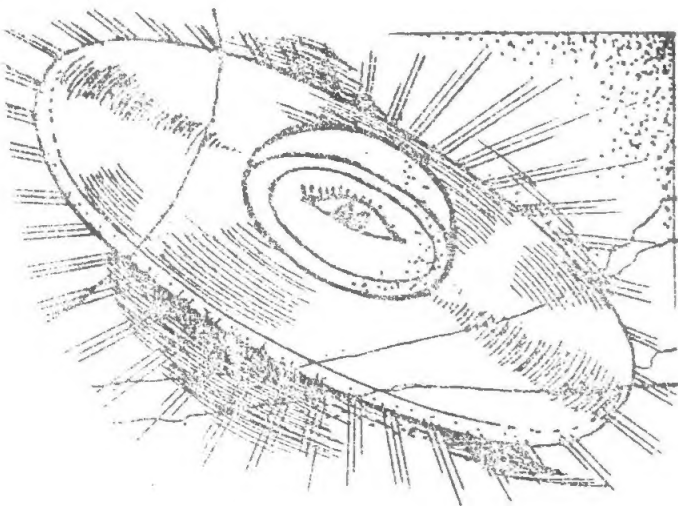

FROM HAWTHORNE, NEW JERSEY

Have you read the new book by Ruth Montgomery, "Aliens Among Us"? (should be available in most book stores, in the occult section). Ruth is a long-time "New Ager" who is a channel of spiritual entities (demons?). Her latest book has quite a bit of info on "walk-ins", or spirit entities who take over a human body at some point in a person's life. Most of these "walk-ins" as you can suspect have psychic abilities and are strongly pushing the NEW AGE. And, most importantly, most of these WALK-INS claim to be from SIRIUS! (i.e. spirit beings who traveled from Sirius to take on an earth-like body). I have a friend who I corresponded with much in my "New Age" days, she claims to know several of these "walk-ins", two or three of them, she says, are from ORION (the Nebula region, I presume). She's not only a New Ager and extremely psychic, but in contact with familiar spirits and a little into sorcery/witchcraft.

If the "walk-ins" are demons, or fallen angels who existed since the dawn of time, they could certainly explain these spirits who come to earth to inhabit bodies. This may explain the immortal Markabians that the Scientologist Bill Robertson talks about, from the Polaris star area of space, who have come to earth in their spirit bodies and taken over (a la Invasion of the Body Snatchers) the bodies of several thousand influential people, and are attempting to bring about the New World Order. I don't know whether to agree with Robertson or not, since he claims to be a student of the Sci-fi writer L. Ron Hubbard, a former member of the O.T.O., who founded the Scientology cult. If the Markabs do exist, I suspect they may be "demons" or "Old Ones" also.

One of the foremost experts on Ufology, John A. Keel, seems to think there is a demonic connection between the UFO mystery, etc. and that if an answer to the UFO mystery is ever made known it will come from the Vatican. I would imagine that the dimension the demons/Old Ones live in would appear physical to them, though invisible to us, their molecular vibrations or whatever being much higher than ours. So could it not be possible that in their dimension they (demons) have established their own technology and science? According to the Bible the fallen angels were kicked out of the 3rd heaven, where the angels and God dwell, and came to dwell in the second heaven (the first heaven would be the physical stars/planets/galaxies we see from earth). So demons and angels may also dwell on other planets though in a form invisible to us. New Agers say that Lucifer came from Venus originally (kicked out?). Other sources I'm aware of suggest that Venus may be inhabited by beings invisible to us. We all know that God created Adam and Eve on earth, and that most "physical" humans are descended from them. I won't say that he may not have created "Adam and Eve's" on other worlds also, I just don't know. I do suspect that many of the UFOs now being sighted may come from the second heaven, one invisible to us, inhabited by fallen angels, that these demons have established their own technologies, created craft capable of transporting themselves to the physical Universe. This may explain why so many UFOs sighted suddenly appear and disappear in the blink of an eye - one dimension to another and why certain psychics are able to see UFOs when an ordinary person cannot. The Freemasons (who are of course in league with Lucifer) are trying to wrest the secrets of nature from the earth (by promoting scientific development), and manipulate nature to their own ends (by promoting sorcery/witchcraft, etc.). They say that God (Adonay) detests science. If this is so, many of the inspired scientific discoveries down through the ages did not come from God, but from Satan (I'm talking about all those people who have had dreams or visions of a scientific nature which later led to a great invention. New Agers believe also that those on the "spirit plane" have their own inventions, technology, etc. and that this spirit technology overflows into the physical world, intentionally or otherwise, from time to time. This would explain why most of the "Space Brothers" the New Age UFO cults concern themselves with are often described as being invisible to us, from another dimension, and so on. (I suspect these "space brothers" are demons and I'll tell you why). Among the New Age UFO cults, the name Ashtar comes up frequently. Ashtar is supposed to be the space commander of millions of non-physical spaceships which are hovering over the earth waiting to "evacuate" New Agers when the "earth-changes" (which they believe are necessary for the New Age to arrive) take place. This is probably a perversion of the Biblical "rapture" and "judgement". Anyway, Ashtar is under the command of Sananda (the New Ager's Jesus Christ) and Sanat Kumara (the New Ager's God), mentioned in HIDDEN DANGERS OF THE RAINBOW as a name for Satan. Moreover, these space brothers are preaching through their hundreds of channels their New Age Gospel -- totally anti-Christian in nature, having more in common with the Kabala than with the Holy Bible, another sign of possible demonic influence. One psychic who is in contact mentally with Sananda claimed that Ashtar was going to prepare for his "return" (of Christ-Sananda), which would consist of a literal invasion (the argument she gave was that this invasion would off-set a nuclear war). These saviours would come down in their spaceships, along with the second coming of Sananda, and would disarm the human race and set up their New World Order, teaching centers (which would teach Hindu type religions), and the rest. She gave a date for this, but it didn't come off. The material I sent you earlier on the guy in Australia who observed the interdimensional being, Samanah (similar to Sananda, isn't it?) who he was certain was Satan himself, who traveled in a reddish UFO seems to confirm all this demonic-UFO stuff. An issue of Shavertron (P.O. Box 248 - Vallejo, California 94590) some time back carried an article concerning ancient records telling of an alien being, or beings who landed in ancient times, who resembled the most-oft described appearance of Satan (i.e. he's most often described as a creature with a human body, a goat's head with spiral horns, and Satyr-like legs with hooves.) I've read of a couple incidents of children conceived out of an unholy union between a woman and an Incubus. These children had tails and horns (I even saw a photo of two such children who were killed at birth), the typical demonic appearance. Some believe that the anti-Christ will be/or was conceived by an actual union between a woman (witch) and Satan himself. If that's the case, then he would probably be human in appearance, but possessed by the spirit of Satan. I'm certain that the Anti-Christ is alive somewhere in the world, whether it's Maitreya or someone else, I don't know.

• DEVILISH CREATURES from outer space visited earth

I also think there is a demonic connection to the Shaver Mystery. You may be familiar with the Cosmic Awareness Communications -- revelations received through trance by a guy named Paul Shockley. This group of spirits who call themselves Cosmic Awareness claim to be the same beings who spoke through Moses, Christ, the Prophets, Buddha, etc. Their revelations are of an anti-Christian nature just like nearly all "channeled" New Age data. They do say that 80% of all UFOs come from earth (i.e. the caverns). If many UFOs are piloted by demons, then the caverns (which are associated with "hell") may very well be the origin point. We can see that Shaver's DE-ROS, and DE-MONS begin with the letters DE, which symbolize everything that is negative and ungodly.

Some other things to think about: Socrates spoke of Hades, the land of the dead beneath the earth (in caverns). He also spoke of Tartarus, a land "as far beneath Hades as Hades is beneath the earth". Tartarus, he said was a chasm spread throughout the entire earth (possibly the bottomless pit of the Bible), or what New Agers refer to as the "Hollow Earth". Socrates said that "Gods" dwelled in this underworld. In his book UNVEILED MYSTERIES, Guy Ballard, founder of the "I AM" cult and student of the Ascended Master St. Germain, was told of this hollow world (Tartarus) which was ruled over by the God "Pelleur". Many New Agers claim to have had mental contact with this God-Man Pelleur. I'm not sure whether this is the same as the "Lord of the World" who supposedly resides in Shambhala. It is appearing more and more possible that the Christian "caverns of hell beneath the earth" may be a literal fact and inhabited by physical and non-physical beings. As some of the data I sent you earlier suggests, there are rumors of entrances to these "nether regions" located beneath such places as the Baha'i Temple, Mormon temple, Hare Krishna Temple in California, the Shiek Adi Temple in the near East, the Church of St. John the Divine in New York City, and beneath the pagan temples on the Island of Malta. It's interesting to note that most of these hidden entrances to hell are in temples associated with cults who are involved in the conspiracy. Many of these entrances are also associated with demons and/or degenerate Atlanteans (Dero's?) who may have taken refuge underground, thus escaping the Biblical Deluge.

I find that if some piece of information I come across disagrees entirely from what the Bible says, it's probably not true, so I discard it. The Bible has proven to be the most perfect, accurate book in history. It's 2000 years old and more powerful than ever, thousands of its prophecies have come to pass without fail, thousands upon thousands of archeological discoveries have confirmed what the Bible says historically speaking.

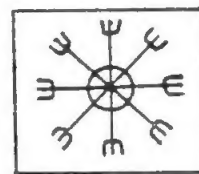

One man investigated the various advancements being made in the scientific field during a certain timespan, and attempted to pinpoint as many incidents as possible in which new discoveries caused the discarding of an old theory in favor of a new one. He found over 100 cases in which these new discoveries which were made by scientists were already laid bare in black and white over 2000 years ago, the answer was there in the Bible all along! The reason? Because the Bible is the only book either written or inspired by God. And since God cannot lie, the Bible has to be true.

P.S. I've come across considerable evidence that the Nazi experiments on electro-magnetic aircraft research (the forerunner of the present U.S.-U.S.S.R. experiments), is being continued by various earth governments in secret. The present-day UFOs being created by the government are as advanced over the Nazi ones as the bi-plane is over the concorde. These secret aircraft are being constructed now, the individual components are being built in various widespread aerospace factories, and then travel to assembly sites via complicated routes. Texas is a hot-spot for this activity. Fort Hood has an underground "saucer base". But there are rumors that we have a secret base now established on the moon, via this secret space program using this too-advanced-to-be-known space technology.

CONSPIRACY NOTES

(1) SATANISM IN UTAH. (From The Herald, Provo, Utah - 7/29/85.) "Satan come please. See the priest on his knees. He begs for money from the Holy One. And Lucifer, you are the only one." -- Vinceniel. -- From the 7th to the 9th grade, Vinceniel practiced Satanism. He penned the writing above while deeply involved. For this 17-year old, Satanic involvement started in northern Utah. He just recently returned home after an eight-month-long, court-appointed residence in a Utah County group home. His identity is protected by a pseudonym. Instead of his real name, the teenager said he would like to be referred to in this story as simply Vinceniel, a name he said he liked....Like his friends and others, Vinceniel was lured into Satanism with music and drugs. Long before the opportunity presented itself, he liked heavy-metal music and was primed with the

Satanic themes of the music. "All of a sudden there was this guy named Jack. He came from who knows where. I was walking down the road around midnight going home and I saw this dude coming," says Vinceniel. Jack was about two years older, short, with thin long hair. He had dropped out of school and was heavily involved in Satanism. The first Satanic ritual Vinceniel attended was at Jack's house. During the ritual, things "flew around" in the darkened room; deep voices were heard. Jack mumbled a couple of words and a small candle's flame suddenly erupted into a ball of fire. "Jack read from a book he called the Black Book. I had sweat pouring down me," Vinceniel said. "it was scary but it was fun." Subsequent Satanistic rituals included sacrificing animals and drinking the dying Animal's blood. At these rituals it was always dark. Vinceniel said Jack always wore a black robe with red lining. In an area of the room where the ritual was being performed a black candle burned on a skull with two red candles nearby. "Jack would read from the Black Book -- not out loud where you can understand it, but kind of mumbley, you know. The rest of us took sugar and drew the pentagram on black velvet." There were always about 12 or 13 people at these sacrifices to Satan. And Vinceniel said he usually knew most of them. "Initially we killed cats and stuff. We slit their throats across and then cut down to get lots of blood so everyone could drink it." The group of Satanists he associated with at the time started killing larger and larger animals. "We started going on people's farms taking their pigs and goats to sacrifice." He said after the sacrifice the hooves and ears would be cut off and kept. "Jack had a wholebag full of them. He kept them in a black sack, but for some reason wouldn't never let anyone look inside." The killing of bigger and bigger animals at rituals and the drinking of the animal's blood was getting to Vinceniel, but the experience with the red glow was reason alone to make an exit. He was in the darkened room of a friend's house performing a Satanic ritual. Just a few people were there. "All of a sudden you could see a red glow appearing in the ceiling in the corner of the room." "Mike's sister freaked out, picked up some drumsticks and started trying to stab Mike. We thought she was possessed." She shook and moaned as she was restrained by the others. The dark experience lasted for about an hour before the red glow disappeared. Vinceniel said the girl still doesn't remember the hour or what she did. It still frightens him to think what could have happened if she had had a knife to pick up instead of the nearby drumsticks. He said he believes the red glow was Satan himself or one of his representatives.... What about Jack, the one that first got Vinceniel started in Satanism? "Since I've been down here (Utah County), I've seen him twice. He's kind of burned out and just kind of jams on his guitar, playing heavy metal songs. I used to wonder, 'What was in it for Jack?' and concluded, 'nothing.' He must have sold his soul and was doing it for Satan."

(2) THE NIGHT STALKER. (From The Paterson News - 9/2/85.) Los Angeles -UPI. - Evidence of Satanic rituals, including mutilation and spray-painted five-pointed stars found in several homes attacked by the Night Stalker, may figure in the killer's motivation, it was reported. Police refused to comment yesterday on a report by KABC-TV reported Wayne Satz, who said he had withheld the information about Satanic evidence at the request of detectives. In a report broadcast Saturday night, Satz said a common link at many of the 16 murder scenes was a five-pointed star suspended inside a circle -- a symbol of devil worship -- that had been spray-painted on walls. Earlier in the week, police announced that a baseball cap with the letters AC-DC embroidered on it was found at one of the murder sites. AC-DC is a heavy-metal rock band whose music makes repeated references to devil worship, and some say the letters stand for the words "Anti-Christ, Devil's Child." Satz noted that the lyrics from one AC-DC song on the album "Highway To Hell," entitled "Night Prowler," include some phrases strikingly suggestive of the Night Stalker's criminal style. One verse asks, "Was that a noise outside your window? What's that shadow on the blind? As you lay there naked like a body in a tomb, suspended animation as I slip into your room," The chorus repeated several times, defiantly proclaims, I'm your night prowler, I sleep in the day. Yes, I'm the night prowler, get out of my way. Look out for the night prowler, watch out tonight. Yes, I'm the night prowler when you turn out the light." The Night Stalker killed all of his victims in the pre-dawn darkness, usually by slipping into their homes through unlocked windows or doors and often shooting or stabbing them to death as they slept. Another report said the words "Jack the Knife," reportedly coming from a song by another "heavy metal" group, Judas Priest, were scrawled on some walls, and that white gloves were sometimes left behind. Satz also reported that police had matched a shoeprint -- evidence earlier referred to by police as something "subtle but distinctive" -- found at several sites of Stalker slayings to footprints in the hills of Los Angeles, where devil worshippers have been known to gather. Satz also revealed at least one attempt to gouge out a victim's eyes -- a devil worship ritual. On other occasions, he said, the suspect ate a meal at the house after the crime, consistent with a Satanic ritual of celebration following a sacrifice. He said detectives "grudgingly acknowledged" earlier this week that the information was a major part of their probe. "I asked them how they felt about us running the information," he told UPI, "and they said, 'We can't tell you not to, but we strongly request that you don't.' When I confronted police with what I knew, they had to acknowledge that it was true." Police yesterday questioned the man they believe is the Night Stalker -- a pot smoking drifter reportedly fascinated by devil worship who is suspected of killing 16 people and may have slain two others hours before he was caught. Richard Ramirez, 25, arrested Saturday after he was attacked by citizens who launched a chase when they found him trying to steal a car, may be linked to the slayings of two men just hours before his arrest, authorities said. The men, whose names have been withheld, were shot to death, apparently as they slept, following a party at their home in suburban Montclair. "There's a possibility it might be connected (to the Night Stalker cases)," said Montclair police Sgt. Romel Alvarez. Deputies said San Francisco authorities flew to Los Angeles yesterday to participate in the second day of questioning of Ramirez, but did not indicate if the questions concerned the Montclair slayings. Little is known about the suspect, who is being held in a maximum-security cell at Los Angeles County Jail. Ramirez awaits arraignment early this week on charges related to 16 Night Stalker killings and 21 other assaults in homes from San Francisco to Mission Viejo. It is not known where Ramirez had been living, although the Orange County Register reported he was a street sweeper. Ramirez was described as a withdrawn boy by his childhood neighbors in El Paso, Texas, and police records show he was arrested three times in Texas, once for theft and twice for possession of marijuana.

(3) UFO DRUG SMUGGLING. E. Edwin Austin of the Mutilation Data Center reports: Things are happening which you may find interesting. I seem to be developing new approaches to drug enforcement that work in unexpected ways. Investigation is proving to criminal court standards (meaning actual convictions) that at least some UFOs are Hughes 500 C or 500 D helicopters, used to smuggle drugs. They are operated such a way as to give them the appearance of a mysterious light flitting silently about the night sky. This is a rural phenomenon centering around drug distribution points operating from remote farms. The key is the engineering of those two special vehicles, which are heavily favored by both law enforcement and drug smugglers. Originally designed for use under combat conditions, they run silently, giving rise to the "mysterious light" UFO. I have a case out of Moore Haven, Florida, where a Deputy Sheriff observed such a light, which would normally have been reported as a "UFO". The Deputy made a phony radio call, saying he was "going off duty, home to bed." Then he called his office on the telephone to set up an alert and quietly went back to the area in an unlighted vehicle. He suckered the light into landing on a remote country road and busted a woman and three men, took a twin engine aircraft, a Hughes 500 C and $173 million in coke. Not to shabby for a country boy! I'd suggest you get hold of Dr. James Farris, Cal-State-Fullerton. Teaches law enforcement. I've been using him as a repository for predictions based on correlating animal mutilations and UFOs. He will confirm the following reasonably accurate predictions, made several weeks ahead of the events: (1) Livestock mutilations near Alliance, Nebraska. (2) The $7 billion marijuana bust off Boston harbor. (3) The big gun-running bust out of Boston to Ireland. He will also confirm my analysis of UFO/mutilation patterns which led me to the conclusion that a new corridor is bringing the stuff in through Louisiana, up to remote farms in the midwest, where it is broken up for job-lot shipments to urban areas including Los Angeles. The corridor capitalizes on the fact that the troubled farm economy is creating desperate farmers who turn to drug smuggling to save the family farm. This brings into play a combination of local sympathy, the presence of a respected citizen insulated by disbelief, remoteness of the area where the drugs are ultimately consumed, lack of tax money to finance investigation, prosecution and imprisonment and extreme isolation of the activity. The one weakness is neighbor's livestock, mutilated by the mules who gather at these points, get bored waiting, get stoned, and go cut up a cow. We are making the angry owners of the mutilated livestock into a network that leads us to these often unknown drug traffic points. Thus far, most have been "pass through" distribution centers, not involved in local drug traffic. We have one interesting case, developed out of two mutilations, one near Norfolk, Nebraska, the other near Humphrey. The light led my contact to a supposedly abandoned farm airstrip with a prior record of drug traffic. Out of this, I have information about a man in South Dakota, who is 95% certain to be flying marijuana and possibly cocaine to Los Angeles once a month. There's another aspect I find fascinating. We're dealing with people so sophisticated that they sabotage industrial employment in little farm towns, to keep the farmers poor and desperate. I have two such cases in Nebraska and half a dozen others all over the Midwest. This thing is beginning to move. I suspect I'm onto something if I can develop it more fully and get law enforcement to use it.
